So Why is Almost Everyone Talking About Blogging?

In a word... Money!
Search engines send lots of free traffic to blogs, because blogs provide fresh content because they are constantly updated.

And if you know how to “monetize” your blog properly, then free traffic means money!

That's why Twitter, which is an example of microblogging, has such a high page ranking in the most popular search engines.

In fact, TwitterSearch is among the best places to find “on-location” late-breaking news.

It is constantly being updated with fresh information.
